

Royal Pharmaceutical Society
of Great Britain

Call for Papers: Academic Pharmacy Group Conference 2010

4-5 March 2010, MacDonald Bath Spa hotel, Bath

New Education Standards: Managing the Change in Pharmacy Education

Call for submissions

We are pleased to announce a call for submissions for the Academic Pharmacy Group Conference to be held on 4- 5 March 2010 in Bath.

The conference topic will focus of the new education standards and include sessions on admissions, integrated pre-registration and student fitness to practise.

We are looking for speakers for the following:

- Integrated pre-registration - 20 minute workshops
- Topic of choice, related to one of the 9 standards – 20 minute and 40 minute workshops

We are interested in any work relating to any one of the 9 new education standards, particularly work that shows innovation or a new way of working. We hope for the workshop sessions to be informative, with an interactive element.

A copy of the draft Education Standards can be downloaded here:

http://www.chre.org.uk/img/pics/library/GPhC_Annex_D1_Ed_and_training_v1.0.pdf

If you are interested in submitting a paper, please use the Abstract Submission Form on the following page. Deadline for submissions is Thursday 28 January 2010.

The full programme for this conference will be available shortly. For details of how to book a place at the conference please visit the APG website.

RPSGB Academic Pharmacy Group Conference 2010,
4-5 March 2010, MacDonald Bath Spa hotel, Bath

Abstract Submission Form

Please ensure all the sections below are completed.

Session you are submitting for:

Topic/keywords:

Title:

Abstract/description of the paper: (maximum 150 words)

Contact details:

Your Full Name:

Job Title:

School of Pharmacy:

Direct telephone:

Email:

Name(s) of colleagues (if applicable):

Preferred workshop date: (4th or 5th March)

Abstracts should be submitted by Thursday 28 January 2010 to: philippa.stevens@rpsgb.org or Philippa Stevens, RPSGB, 1 Lambeth High Street, London, SE1 7JN

If you have any queries please call 020 7572 2604.