On: 18 September 2001

For: Six hours

With objectives:

- To inform tutors of the RPSGB's aims, objectives and requirements for preregistration training
 - To inform tutors of the content of preregistration training and to introduce the training manual
 - To describe the competence-based training programme for the core aspects of preregistration training, particularly the principles of training, assessment and recording achievement
 - To describe the Society's appraisal scheme and the principles of conducting an effective appraisal
 - To help tutors identify ways in which problems that may arise during the year may be tackled
 - To provide a forum for the transfer of information and ideas among tutors.

What have I learnt from this event?

How will these things improve my current or future performance in my job?

What opportunities do I have or need to practise what I have learnt?

What help or support will I need and from whom?

How and when will I (and others) measure how well I have put my learning into practice at work?
