

Statutory Committee Inquiries

The Statutory Committee will meet at the Royal Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, 1 Lambeth High Street, London SE1, at 9.30am on Monday 26, Tuesday 27, Wednesday 28 and Thursday 29 June 2006 to hear the following inquiries:

Monday 26 June 2006

1. The Committee will resume the Inquiry into a complaint by the Council of the Society against Mr Richard Gregory Woodroffe (Registration no. 68919); Mrs Margaret Mary Rita Gorman (Registration no. 67793); and Alan Woodcock (Company Identification no. 1001329) which alleges that a dispensing error involving the supply of 100 x Celance 1mg tablets against a prescription for 200 x Pergolide 50mcg tablets, may amount to misconduct.
2. The Committee will deliver the determination of the Inquiry into Mr Dinesh Parmar (Registration no. 74869). A complaint by the Council of the Society alleged that the repeated supply of laxatives and/or diuretics to a patient who Mr Parmar knew or ought to have known was vulnerable to abuse of those medications; a failure to ensure that the pharmacy premises were safe for the public and/or persons working there; a failure to ensure that all stock was stored appropriately; and a failure to heed the advice of a Society Inspector, may have amounted to misconduct. The Committee also considered the following convictions: the supply of a medicinal product, namely Frusemide, without a prescription given by an appropriate practitioner, contrary to s58(2)(a) and s67(2) of the Medicines Act 1968; the supply of a medicinal product, namely Frusemide, in a container not labelled identifying the contents and giving direction as to use, contrary to s85(3) and 91(2) of the Medicines Act 1968; the sale of 5 ampoules of Diamorphine 10mls, a medicinal product which was not of the nature or quality demanded by the purchaser in that it was out of date, contrary to s64(1) of the Medicines Act 1968.

Tuesday 27 June 2006

2. An Inquiry into a complaint by the Council of the Society against Mr Korush Jalali Farahani (Registration no. 1067185) which alleges that the theft of a number of Codeine Phosphate tablets from a pharmacy whilst working as a locum pharmacist, the possession of 14 Kapake capsules which had not been prescribed for him, and the consumption of Codeine Phosphate tablets and Kapake capsules whilst working as a locum pharmacist, may amount to misconduct. The Committee will also consider a conviction for the theft of 40 x 30mg Codeine Phosphate tablets and 14 x 10mg Zolpidem Tartrate tablets of a value unknown belonging to Superdrug Plc, contrary to s1(1) and 7 of the Theft Act 1968.

Wednesday 28 June 2006

3. An Inquiry into a complaint by the Council of the Society against Ms Julia Ruth Harrison (Registration no. 85697) and James Dyan Laurence (Registration no. 84262) which alleges that a failure to have in place a suitable system for the delivery of medicines, the supply of Prescription Only Medicines without the authority of valid prescriptions, and having in place a system which permitted the supply of Prescription Only Medicines to patients in circumstances where the prescriptions had not been signed by the time of supply, may amount to misconduct.

4. The Committee will deliver the determination of the Inquiry into a complaint by the Council of the Society against Mr Manherlal Keshavlal Shah (Registration no. 63471) and MAM International Ltd (Identification no. 1001688) which alleged that the supply of out of date medicines; the supply of Enalapril tablets on which there was no expiry date or batch number; a failure to implement adequate systems for the removal of out of date medicines; the presence in the dispensary of medicines where the date of expiry and batch number were not present and/or had been removed; the presence in the dispensary of medicines labelled years previously from other pharmacies for various patients which were stored amongst the other, alphabetically arranged, current stock, indicating that they might be reused; and the presence of a number of European products which did not bear a produce licence number, may have amounted to misconduct.

Thursday 29 June 2006

5. An Inquiry into Mr Francis Smialowski (Registration no. 70425) who was convicted of four counts of dishonestly obtaining money transfers by deception, namely by representing that he had carried out work outside of normal working hours for which he was entitled to claim payment, contrary to s15a(1) and (5) of the Theft Act 1968.
6. An Inquiry into Mr Daniel Charles Jenkins (Registration no. 76428) who was convicted of driving a motor vehicle after consuming so much alcohol that the proportion of it in his breath exceeded the prescribed limit, contrary to s5(1)(a) of the Road Traffic Act 1988.
7. The Committee will deliver the full determination, with reasons, of the Inquiry into a complaint by the Council of the Society against Ms Ruxana Munshi (Registration no. 82341). The Committee delivered part of their determination on 25 May 2006, when they issued Ms Munshi with a reprimand.
